INTERNATIONALLY RENOWNED CURRICULUM

At King's International School we deliver a rigorous curriculum that focuses on enquiry and critical thinking. We believe that students should be challenged as well as nurtured, guided but also developed as independent learners. For Early Years, we follow the UK Early Years curriculum while Primary and Secondary students pursue the prestigious International British Curriculum which includes IGCSE.

ACCREDITATION

King's International School holds a Cambridge International Accreditation and is accredited by the Ministry of Education to provide British National Curriculum. The Cambridge Assessment International Education is recognised by The Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulations (Ofqual). We promised to maintain a high standard of teaching and deliver the best teaching to the students.

KING'S INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

INTERACTIVE LEARNING

As education evolves, there is a pressing need to overcome these limitations and explore innovative approaches that foster a more engaging and dynamic learning environment.

Integrating smart TVs into our educational approach represents a transformative shift from conventional methods. These high-tech displays offer dynamic, engaging content that sparks students' interest and fosters deeper learning. With access to a vast array of real-time resources, students can explore subjects extensively and develop critical thinking skills beyond textbooks. Furthermore, these interactive TVs encourage active participation through quizzes, discussions, and real-time inquiries, creating a collaborative learning environment. Ultimately, incorporating smart TVs into our curriculum enhances the quality of education, equipping students with digital literacy skills crucial for their future success.

King's International School is unwavering in its commitment to providing a top-tier education that goes beyond the ordinary. Recognizing the transformative power of education, we have embraced Interactive Learning as a cornerstone of our teaching methodology, aiming to elevate the learning experience for our students.

INTERACTIVE LEARNING

PARENT'S/STUDENT'S/TEACHER'S COMMENT

PARENT'S COMMENT:

"Interactive Learning at King's International School has been a game-changer for our child's education. The real-time insights into lesson content and activities allow us to actively support our child's learning journey. It's a refreshing approach that keeps us connected and engaged in their academic progress."

STUDENT'S COMMENT:

"I love how Interactive Learning makes every class exciting! The smart TV displays cool videos and interactive quizzes that make learning fun. Being able to revisit lessons at home helps me understand things better. It's like having the classroom experience wherever I go!"

TEACHER'S COMMENT:

"Interactive Learning has transformed my teaching experience. The engagement level in the classroom is remarkable, and students actively participate through online quizzes and discussions on the smart TV. It's a powerful tool that enhances the learning environment, making lessons more dynamic and fostering a deeper understanding among students."

UPPER SECONDARY (IGCSE)

"Where Knowledge Reigns, Futures Flourish."

The curriculum is designed to be rigorous, aiming to equip students with a comprehensive education to excel in further studies and future careers on a global scale. Alongside academics, co-curricular activities are encouraged to foster students' interests and leadership abilities. This globally recognized IGCSE program enables students to pursue higher education worldwide.

INTENSIVE ENGLISH CLASS

Rapid improvement in language skills: With focused instruction and consistent practice, students can make significant progress in their language skills in a short amount of time.

Immersion in English language and culture: Intensive English classes often provide students with opportunities to interact with native English speakers and learn about the culture in which the language is spoken.

Better preparation for standardized tests: Many intensive English classes are designed to prepare students for standardized tests such as the TOEFL or IELTS, which are often required for admission to universities or for immigration purposes.

An intensive English class is a course designed to teach English language skills at an accelerated pace, usually over a shorter period of time than traditional courses. These classes can be offered in a variety of formats, such as online, in-person, or hybrid.

ENGLISH COURSE

CONTINUATION.....

King's International School welcomes students of all nationalities, recognizing the challenges non-native English speakers may face. To address this, the school offers a customized English for Academic Purpose program. This program, designed for international students, aims to enhance their English proficiency. Students can choose to take it independently or as part of their academic curriculum. The program covers reading, writing, speaking, and listening, with tailored instruction by experienced teachers to accommodate varying proficiency levels. The goal is to ensure seamless integration into the international learning environment.

Reading and Comprehension

The goal of this component is for students to develop their reading skills to be successful learners in academic courses. Students will improve their comprehension skills in order to understand written prose and answer questions based on comprehension passages.

Oral Communication

The goal of this component is for students to learn and practice academic oral communication skills related to speaking and pronunciation. Students will practice the conventions of communicating in the classroom, engage in academic speaking tasks, and improve pronunciation.

Listening and Note-taking

The goal of this component is for students to continue developing their listening skills to be successful learners in academic courses. Students will increase their academic vocabulary, practice taking effective notes during classes, understand and answer test questions, and develop critical thinking skills.

Structure and Composition

The goal of this course is for students to build and apply their knowledge of different types of academic writing and the grammar of academic writing. Students will build and apply their knowledge of grammar and the different types of academic writing in order to build fluency in academic composition.

“The teachers are highly dedicated , passionate and building confidence among children.

The academic program and Curriculum, instruction and assessments aligned with essential education standards and great with supportive learning environment and promotes high levels of collaboration and communication among student, teachers and parents. ”

- Ms Gunawathy

“Let us remember: one book, one child, and one teacher can change the world.”

– Malala Yousafzai

“We sincerely appreciate your responsiveness and the way you conduct your school. We have recommended your school to others because of our satisfaction with your service. ”

- Ms Ratha.M

“I have enrol my two children to King International School in seremban last September. They were previously was studying in Egypt and had very little understanding in English and did not speak English. 6 months after enrollment, I notice a big change that they only speak English now and not Arabic. I was amazed with what the school have worked on my kids. In addition to that, Judy and Adam are always happy to go to school and the teachers and all management staff are truly great when it comes to parents and teachers relationships regarding the student's affairs.”

“If a child can't learn the way we teach,
maybe we should teach the way they learn.”
– Igancio Estrada

“Very limited international schools in Seremban, and we're glad to have King's as a competitive option here in this developing town.

Keep up with qualified teachers, approachable management team and safe environment for our kids to spend their splendid school days.

This experience should be fresh and joyful in every student.

Be stern in your decisions and always select the right and qualified principal to lead the school as per international standards.”
